Comments

As a regional leader with over a decade of elected experience and a deep commitment to inclusive, intentional governance, I'm eager to serve on the GoTriangle Board of Trustees. I've worked closely with GoTriangle through CAMPO and have seen the positive impact of their services in Morrisville—from expanded commuter access to RTP Connect and vanpool programs. I've also been part of a smaller working group addressing recent regional transit concerns, and I'm ready to "put on my regional hat" to help guide our mobility future. My goal is to ensure that every resident in the Triangle has access to safe, reliable, and equitable transportation—and that our transit investments reflect the values and needs of our communities.

I am deeply invested in shaping Raleigh into a city where culture, history, and community are not only preserved but amplified. Serving on a Board or Commission allows me to contribute my lived experience and professional expertise toward policies and programs that ensure inclusivity, equity, and sustainability. My work with Liberation Station Bookstore has taught me the importance of civic collaboration and community engagement, and I am eager to lend that perspective in service to the city.

My commitment to community, literacy, and cultural preservation aligns with Raleigh’s vision for innovation and resilience. With hands-on experience building Liberation Station and collaborating with NCMA, I bring both entrepreneurial and institutional expertise, bridging grassroots storytelling with museum-level strategy. Serving on a Board or Commission would allow me to amplify community voices, strengthen partnerships, and ensure that Raleigh continues to lead in cultural equity and inclusive growth.

Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a Board or Commission?

Whenever me and my neighbors walked around trails in Cary, we would ask each other questions like, 'I wonder who decides to put the crosswalk here,' or 'Why is this stream suddenly flagged for cleanup?' I realized there was a gap between the work the County does and the people who feel its impact. That's the role I want to play: a translator and a bridge. I'm interested in serving on a Board or Commission because I want to play a more active role in supporting and strengthening Wake County, especially when it comes to awareness about the local government, which not a lot of people seem to know about nor participate in. My time on the Health Board at UNC Charlotte taught me how to do that—how to take a student's frustration about clinic hours and turn it into a policy proposal that actually worked. I want to ensure my neighbors see local government not as a distant entity, but as a resource they helped shape by people that they know they can relate and discuss with.
