Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a Board or Commission?

To use the tools that I possess to help the citizens and peoples' of Wake county continually obtain a better standard of living. Whether through housing, assisting in Human Services for our low income communities. I am passionate about helping our communities, with an emphasis on our wonderful working class population centers.

Work Experience

I have ran political campaigns, I have a small business, and I work for a local company on the side. I have held past job titles from waiter to Director of Field Operations and everything in between.

Volunteer Experience

I have volunteered for 8+ years for Relay for Life in multiple cities across Virginia and North Carolina. I was a volunteer coach for a J.V. Track & Field team for a year. I have also volunteered for multiple political campaigns and organizations over the last three years.

Education

I have an Associate's degree in Marketing, and a B.S. in Professional Communications with a minor in political science.
