

Lonnie Johnson
Master Detention Officer
Sheriff's Office

Lonnie began his career in serving and protecting the community in 1984 when he became a Security Officer with the State Capitol Police. After five years of hard work and dedication, he longed for a career change. In February 1989, Lonnie applied for a Jailer Position with Wake County.

On February 27, 1989, Lonnie began his career at the Wake County Sheriff's Office as a Jailer. He received his General Jailer Certification on March 5, 1990. In February of 2004, he attained the rank of Master Detention Officer.

Lonnie retired on September 1, 2018 after 29 years of service and commitment to the Wake County Sheriff's Office.

Please join me in congratulating Lonnie on his retirement.
