

Kimberly Wrenn
Deputy Sheriff – Major
Sheriff's Office

Kim began working with the Wake County Sheriff's office on September 16, 1989. She has worked in many different divisions within the Sheriff's Office, Judicial Services, Courthouse Operations, Patrol and Criminal Investigations.

In 2004, Kim along with other community partners, received Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training in Memphis. The CIT program was developed in Wake County and was the first CIT program in North Carolina. She has traveled all over the state helping other communities with starting their program. Kim was also instrumental in creating Mental Health Crisis Training for Detention.

Kim is a general instructor for the Sheriff's Office and teaches the mental health training for the Basic Law Enforcement Training academy.

In 2010, Kim was assigned to the Administration Division as the Off-Duty Coordinator. She was instrumental in getting a new online system implemented to track all hours worked in off-duty employment.

Kim was the 4th female to be promoted to the rank of Major in the history of the Sheriff's Office.

Kim will retire with 29 years of service to Wake County. Currently, Kim does not have any specific retirement plans other than enjoying each day.

Please join me in congratulating Kim on her retirement.
