

Wake County Board of Commissioners Proclaim the Month of November 2018
as Adoption Awareness Month

WHEREAS, every child deserves to be loved, nurtured, and raised within a healthy stable family; and

WHEREAS, a stable family environment is the most vital resource in providing the support children need to thrive and grow; and

WHEREAS, despite best efforts to return children to their homes sometimes this is not possible. These children are in need of the security, comfort, and sense of belonging provided by a permanent family; and

WHEREAS, in FY2018, 102 children in Wake County were adopted from foster care; and

WHEREAS, there are currently over 625 children and youth in Wake County living in foster care. Of that number, there are 256 children and youth who have a permanent plan of adoption; and

WHEREAS, nearly 65 children in Wake County are waiting for an adoptive family; and

WHEREAS, children waiting for adoption deserve our community and societal support, and most of all, a permanent family; and

WHEREAS, there are numerous individuals, as well as public and private agencies that work to increase public awareness of children who are waiting to be adopted;

WHEREAS, we honor those families that have opened their homes and their hearts to provide a lasting loving family for children who may otherwise not have one.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Wake County Board of Commissioners, does hereby proclaim November 2018, as "Adoption Awareness Month" in Wake County.

ADOPTED this the 7th day of November 2018.

Jessica N. Holmes, Chair
Wake County Board of County Commissioners
