STEVEN D. DEWITT, PE

Alternative Delivery Technical Manager

Parsons Brinckerhoff

BS, CE, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Mr. DeWitt has a wide background in working as a state transportation agency representative in a variety of roles. Mr. DeWitt provides a wealth of expertise as it relates to the entire project delivery cycle – from the early planning and programming stages, guiding environmental efforts, developing risk mitigation processes, developing and implementing alternative procurement methods, and through completion of construction. He additionally has experience in alternative financing efforts of major transportation projects with involvement in bond financings for toll projects (including TIFIA) and Public Private Partnerships. He brings a unique experience level having had a hands-on role in each of these steps of project development and delivery. In his many years in state government, he worked closely with many transportation partners including the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), AASHTO, the highway construction and private engineering communities, citizens and citizens groups, local elected officials, and the NC General Assembly.

In his many roles with NCDOT he had a wide variety of involvement with FHWA Stewardship and Oversight related agreements, policies, procedures, programs, and project specific efforts. The vast majority of the larger projects he has worked on, and all of the FHWA defined Major Projects, have been federally funded in some manner therefore including the many relevant associated activities in project development. Mr. DeWitt also was charged in his NCDOT career with leading many NCDOT programmatic implementation efforts of FHWA requirements. He is also well familiar with the risk-based approach that has been implemented at FHWA. Mr. DeWitt also has a background in risk based approaches to contracting, and project and program delivery.

Professional Experience

- Alternative Delivery Technical Manager (Parsons Brinckerhoff), 2012 – Present: Currently serving as the Lead on the Public Private Partnership (P3) Advisory team for the state of Illinois on the Illiana Corridor. Involved in a variety of major transportation pursuits nationally assisting with project pursuit reviews and risk assessments. Served as a key team member in developing strategies for including the construction elements of the corporation with the engineering elements. Developed and implemented design-build pursuit training with a focus on transportation agency perspectives, risk related considerations, and overall execution. Has developed/is developing several Unsolicited P3 Proposals for major transportation projects. Has been selected by FHWA as a Subject Matter Expert in the area of alternative delivery providing training and guidance at a national level.
- Chief Engineer, North Carolina Turnpike Authority (NCTA), 2006–2012 (Retired): NCTA is a Division of the NCDOT. Responsible for all activities related to planning, design, and construction of major toll projects including: NEPA and permitting, design of all roadway and structure elements, contract development, contract procurement primarily through design-build, and all contract construction administration. Heavily involved in bond financing, innovative financing approaches, toll collection technology implementation, and operations and maintenance functions. Served as lead on negotiating team for a major Public Private Partnership project. Developed many policies and procedures, led numerous public meetings and discussions. While in this role participated in the 2011 international scan of transportation agency risk management practices. Implemented risk related practices in project delivery approaches for NCTA. All of the projects under development by NCTA at the time were/are “high risk projects” in terms of NEPA, financing, and related considerations. NCTA worked very closely with FHWA in developing these projects.
- Director of Construction, NCDOT, 2003 – 2006: Responsible for all activities related to contracting for construction of all major highway projects for NCDOT including contract lettings, specifications and standard drawings, utility relocations, development of erosion control efforts, statewide administration of NCDOT highway construction program, materials compliance, development of Traffic Control Plans, design-build activities, constructability and value engineering processes, prequalification of private engineering firms and contractors. A highlight of this role was the creation of the Alternative Delivery Unit with Design-Build procurement and project execution functions. This role included the development and implementation of federal related considerations in project delivery efforts in the areas noted above.

- State Construction Engineer, NCDOT, 1998 – 2003: Responsible for statewide administration of the entire NCDOT highway construction program with annual lettings exceeding $1 billion. Served as liaison between the Department and the contracting industry. Responsible for implementation of new program initiatives in the department relating to highway construction including innovative contracting and construction quality processes. Led the development of North Carolina's Design-Build program. This role included the development and implementation of federal related considerations in project delivery efforts in the areas noted above.

- Other NCDOT Roles: State Roadway Construction Engineer, NCDOT, 1994 – 1998: Resident Engineer, NCDOT, 1989 – 1994: Project Engineer, NCDOT, 1984 – 1989: Responsible for a multitude of projects including safety improvements on I-40 and I-85, and the construction of the I-40 Bypass around Winston-Salem.

Specific Projects and/or Initiatives with Key Role:

- Developed the NCTA Project Delivery Program – A Conception to Completion Project Delivery Model that included a small, highly focused, knowledgeable, highly cohesive integrated group of key individuals that allowed for accelerated project delivery with all key steps of the process carefully considered. The main emphasis of this delivery model was a risk based approach that focused on risk assessment, risk mitigation and appropriate risk transfer to the private sector.

- The Triangle Expressway: North Carolina's first modern toll road – Corridor consisted of 20 miles of major interstate construction. Financing was/is toll revenue based with a TIFIA loan being a key element of the financing structure. The largest project in North Carolina history, delivered in record time. The risk based approach noted above was the backbone of the delivery of this corridor. A highly aggressive schedule, NEPA challenges, right of way and utility relocation issues, and the greatest recession since the great depression (greatly impacting the project financing) all were high risk issues that were dealt with in delivering this key highway. This corridor won numerous national awards for project delivery and innovation.

- Mid-Currituck Bridge – North Carolina's first initiated Public Private Partnership (P3) for major infrastructure. Project included a Pre-Development Agreement where the Developer was selected by a quality assessment while the project was still in the NEPA process. Developer became an integral team member providing valuable insight into the cost of various NEPA alternatives and constructability pre Record of Decision.

- Development of NCDOT's Design-Build Program: Led the process for the NCDOT including legislative initiatives, working with private industry, and internal organizational changes. These efforts included policy and program development along with technical guidelines.

- Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) Program Development – Charged with rewriting NCDOT's DBE program including working with the various interests within the contracting community, FHWA, and others.

- Numerous other Department Process Improvement initiatives - primarily in the areas of project delivery, highway construction, procurement, contract administration, Quality Control/Quality Assurance, training initiatives, overall Department performance and performance measurements, performance based pay systems for employees, public information efforts on major highway projects.

Professional Affiliations with Key Roles:

Mr. DeWitt has a long relationship working with key national transportation entities such as FHWA, AASHTO, TRB, ARTBA, AGC, DBIA, and ACEC. He has served in a variety of national leadership roles on committees, task forces, and other group initiatives.

By submitting this electronic application, I pledge that, if appointed I agree by my signature below that, if appointed, I pledge to comply with the following ethics guidelines for advisory boards and commissions as adopted by the Wake County Board of Commissioners.

I. Declaration of Policy

The proper operation of democratic government requires that public officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people; that governmental decisions and policy be made in proper channels of the governmental structure; that public office not be used for personal gain; and that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government.

In recognition of these goals, a Code of Ethics for County officials is hereby adopted. The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for all such officials by setting forth those acts or actions that are compatible with the best interests of the County.

II. Applicability of Ethics Policy

The provisions of this policy shall apply to all elected and appointed County officials, members of County boards and commissions appointed by the County commissioners, and other County employees.

II. Financial and Personal Disclosure

Any County official or employee who must officially consider any public matter involving his financial or personal interests, or those of his immediate family, shall first publicly disclose the nature and extent of such interest and shall abstain from acting thereon unless provisions of state law require otherwise.

III. Gifts and Favors

No official or employee shall knowingly accept any gift, whether in the form of money, thing, favor, loan or promise, when it could reasonably be inferred that the gift was intended to influence or reward an official action on his part. Gifts, meals, other favors of an incidental nature and of minor value, or legitimate political contributions shall not be included in this policy.

IV. Appointment, Employment, or Contract Award of Relatives or Business Partners

Public officials of the appointing authority must disclose on the public record any person of their immediate family related by blood or marriage, or business interest who is being considered for appointment, employment or contract award by that authority.

Immediate family related by blood and marriage are to include: spouse, child, parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents, grandchildren, step-, and in-law relationships for preceding categories.
