ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR COUNTY ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR COUNTY ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

By submitting this electronic application, I pledge that, if appointed I agree by my signature below that, if appointed, I pledge to comply with the following ethics guidelines for advisory boards and commissions as adopted by the Wake County Board of Commissioners.

I. Declaration of Policy

The proper operation of democratic government requires that public officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people; that governmental decisions and policy be made in proper channels of the governmental structure; that public office not be used for personal gain; and that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government.

In recognition of these goals, a Code of Ethics for County officials is hereby adopted. The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for all such officials by setting forth those acts or actions that are compatible with the best interests of the County.

II. Applicability of Ethics Policy

The provisions of this policy shall apply to all elected and appointed County officials, members of County boards and commissions appointed by the County commissioners, and other County employees.

II. Financial and Personal Disclosure

Any County official or employee who must officially consider any public matter involving his financial or personal interests, or those of his immediate family, shall first publicly disclose the nature and extent of such interest and shall abstain from acting thereon unless provisions of state law require otherwise.

III. Gifts and Favors

No official or employee shall knowingly accept any gift, whether in the form of money, thing, favor, loan or promise, when it could reasonably be inferred that the gift was intended to influence or reward an official action on his part. Gifts, meals, other favors of an incidental nature and of minor value, or legitimate political contributions shall not be included in this policy.

IV. Appointment, Employment, or Contract Award of Relatives or Business Partners

Public officials of the appointing authority must disclose on the public record any person of their immediate family related by blood or marriage, or business interest who is being considered for appointment, employment or contract award by that authority.

Immediate family related by blood and marriage are to include: spouse, child, parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents, grandchildren, step-, and in-law relationships for preceding categories.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR COUNTY ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

By submitting this electronic application, I pledge that, if appointed I agree by my signature below that, if appointed, I pledge to comply with the following ethics guidelines for advisory boards and commissions as adopted by the Wake County Board of Commissioners.

I. Declaration of Policy

The proper operation of democratic government requires that public officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people; that governmental decisions and policy be made in proper channels of the governmental structure; that public office not be used for personal gain; and that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government.

In recognition of these goals, a Code of Ethics for County officials is hereby adopted. The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for all such officials by setting forth those acts or actions that are compatible with the best interests of the County.

II. Applicability of Ethics Policy

The provisions of this policy shall apply to all elected and appointed County officials, members of County boards and commissions appointed by the County commissioners, and other County employees.

II. Financial and Personal Disclosure

Any County official or employee who must officially consider any public matter involving his financial or personal interests, or those of his immediate family, shall first publicly disclose the nature and extent of such interest and shall abstain from acting thereon unless provisions of state law require otherwise.

III. Gifts and Favors

No official or employee shall knowingly accept any gift, whether in the form of money, thing, favor, loan or promise, when it could reasonably be inferred that the gift was intended to influence or reward an official action on his part. Gifts, meals, other favors of an incidental nature and of minor value, or legitimate political contributions shall not be included in this policy.

IV. Appointment, Employment, or Contract Award of Relatives or Business Partners

Public officials of the appointing authority must disclose on the public record any person of their immediate family related by blood or marriage, or business interest who is being considered for appointment, employment or contract award by that authority.

Immediate family related by blood and marriage are to include: spouse, child, parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents, grandchildren, step-, and in-law relationships for preceding categories.

Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a Board or Commission?

I am interested in serving on my desired boards and commissions as I am extremely interested in giving back to my community. I have previous experience serving on the City of Raleigh's Bike and Pedestrian Advisory Commission (BPAC) but had to resign due to my moving outside of the city limits. My background is primarily focused on transportation and real estate, and I would welcome the opportunity to provide that to the great work going on in these groups.

Work Experience

North Carolina Association of Realtors® 2014 – Present Political Communications & Regulatory Affairs Director (2016 – Present), Local Government Affairs Director (2014 – 2015) • Develop research briefs on issues of importance to the association including legislative actions, transportation policy, and regulatory affairs; advise senior leadership on communication needs and lobbying strategies • Lead discussions with the legislative committee to formulate and relay the associations stance on policy issues to 36,000 members; leverage relationships and networks to advocate at the community and state level • Represent the association and its members before regulatory bodies such as the North Carolina Real Estate Commission, Appraisal Board, and Coastal Resources Commission • Highlight government affairs activities through a weekly newsletter and the association's quarterly magazine, Insight • Assist local associations with Political Action Committee activities including fundraising and candidate funding

Longleaf Strategy Group 2014 – Present Founder and Principal • Provide consulting services to local lobbying firms, law firms and trade associations; research legislative policy and draft briefs related to areas of interest • Serve as an advisor to leadership within start-up organizations; provide an overview of opportunities at the local/state level and input on communications strategy, lobbying, grant acquisition, and business growth plans

North Carolina Department of Transportation 2011 – 2013 Policy Advisor, Logistics (2012 – 2013), Liaison to the Lieutenant Governor (2011 – 2012) • Developed strategic plan aimed at increasing operational efficiency and improving legislative relationships after the legislative transfer of the NC Global TransPark and NC State Ports Authority to NCDOT • Assisted the Governor's Logistics Task Force with the Seven Portals Study and North Carolina Maritime Strategy; drafted final report outlining a plan to move people, goods, and information more efficiently throughout the state • Researched policy in the areas of transportation, commerce and trade, and maritime operations; drafted white papers for the Lt. Governor, Secretary of Transportation, and Director of Statewide Logistics Office of Lieutenant Governor Walter Dalton 2009 - 2011 Director of Constituent Services • Represented the Lt. Governor on committees related to education, US Census and transportation; interacted with members of the General Assembly, statewide government officials and high profile business leaders • Developed social media outreach plans and protocols and managed the Lieutenant Governor's website • Conducted research on innovative education technologies for the Joining Our Businesses and Schools Commission

W. Seth Palmer is an experienced young professional with a background and passion for the policy process. Throughout his eight years of professional experience, he has led multiple large-scale projects addressing needs of state government organizations, trade associations as well as small businesses, start-ups and nonprofits.

Seth currently serves as the Political Communications and Regulatory Affairs Director for the North Carolina Association of REALTORS®. In this role, he manages the association's advocacy communications efforts to its more than 35,000 members. Seth also serves as its primary regulatory lobbyist, representing the association before agencies such as the North Carolina Real Estate Commission and North Carolina Appraisal Board. Prior to joining the REALTORS® team, Seth served on the staffs of the North Carolina House Majority Leader, North Carolina Lieutenant Governor, and the Secretary of the North Carolina Department of Transportation. In 2012, Seth authored the final report for the Governor's Logistics Task Force, a 30-member commission tasked with examining North Carolina's freight logistics capabilities and economic development opportunities.

Seth is a 2008 graduate of North Carolina State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. He was elected to the Pi Sigma Alpha, National Political Science Honor Society and is a 2011 Fellow of the North Carolina Institute of Political Leadership. He is actively involved in numerous community organizations and serves as the 2017 Event Co-Chair for Band Together NC, a nonprofit whose efforts have raised over $6.5 million for Triangle-area nonprofit organizations.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR COUNTY ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR COUNTY ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

By submitting this electronic application, I pledge that, if appointed I agree by my signature below that, if appointed, I pledge to comply with the following ethics guidelines for advisory boards and commissions as adopted by the Wake County Board of Commissioners.

I. Declaration of Policy

The proper operation of democratic government requires that public officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people; that governmental decisions and policy be made in proper channels of the governmental structure; that public office not be used for personal gain; and that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government.

In recognition of these goals, a Code of Ethics for County officials is hereby adopted. The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for all such officials by setting forth those acts or actions that are compatible with the best interests of the County.

II. Applicability of Ethics Policy

The provisions of this policy shall apply to all elected and appointed County officials, members of County boards and commissions appointed by the County commissioners, and other County employees.

II. Financial and Personal Disclosure

Any County official or employee who must officially consider any public matter involving his financial or personal interests, or those of his immediate family, shall first publicly disclose the nature and extent of such interest and shall abstain from acting thereon unless provisions of state law require otherwise.

III. Gifts and Favors

No official or employee shall knowingly accept any gift, whether in the form of money, thing, favor, loan or promise, when it could reasonably be inferred that the gift was intended to influence or reward an official action on his part. Gifts, meals, other favors of an incidental nature and of minor value, or legitimate political contributions shall not be included in this policy.

IV. Appointment, Employment, or Contract Award of Relatives or Business Partners

Public officials of the appointing authority must disclose on the public record any person of their immediate family related by blood or marriage, or business interest who is being considered for appointment, employment or contract award by that authority.

Immediate family related by blood and marriage are to include: spouse, child, parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents, grandchildren, step-, and in-law relationships for preceding categories.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR COUNTY ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

By submitting this electronic application, I pledge that, if appointed I agree by my signature below that, if appointed, I pledge to comply with the following ethics guidelines for advisory boards and commissions as adopted by the Wake County Board of Commissioners.

I. Declaration of Policy

The proper operation of democratic government requires that public officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people; that governmental decisions and policy be made in proper channels of the governmental structure; that public office not be used for personal gain; and that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government.

In recognition of these goals, a Code of Ethics for County officials is hereby adopted. The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for all such officials by setting forth those acts or actions that are compatible with the best interests of the County.

II. Applicability of Ethics Policy

The provisions of this policy shall apply to all elected and appointed County officials, members of County boards and commissions appointed by the County commissioners, and other County employees.

II. Financial and Personal Disclosure

Any County official or employee who must officially consider any public matter involving his financial or personal interests, or those of his immediate family, shall first publicly disclose the nature and extent of such interest and shall abstain from acting thereon unless provisions of state law require otherwise.

III. Gifts and Favors

No official or employee shall knowingly accept any gift, whether in the form of money, thing, favor, loan or promise, when it could reasonably be inferred that the gift was intended to influence or reward an official action on his part. Gifts, meals, other favors of an incidental nature and of minor value, or legitimate political contributions shall not be included in this policy.

IV. Appointment, Employment, or Contract Award of Relatives or Business Partners

Public officials of the appointing authority must disclose on the public record any person of their immediate family related by blood or marriage, or business interest who is being considered for appointment, employment or contract award by that authority.

Immediate family related by blood and marriage are to include: spouse, child, parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents, grandchildren, step-, and in-law relationships for preceding categories.
