Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a Board or Commission?

I believe that children are our future. This council seeks to identify at-risk children, and give them a chance to turn their lives around. I am passionate about criminal justice reform, and in the future, I want to run for public office to represent North Carolina. As a member of this council, I believe that I can have a strong impact on the children in our state. Additionally, as a student, I bring a unique perspective to the council and can talk directly about issues in schools.

Work Experience

I have vast experience with criminal justice and the law. I am a legal assistant for a local immigration attorney, and I work as a legal researcher for the WiderNet Project. As a student at UNC-Chapel Hill, and I am a captain on the Mock Trial team, the Student Solicitor General, the Vice President of UNC Moot Court, and a counsel for students in the UNC Honor System.

Volunteer Experience

My volunteer work coincides with the interests of this council. I regularly volunteer with the Capital Area Teen Court program to help rehabilitate children convicted of minor crimes. I also volunteer at homeless shelters in Wake County, including With Love From Jesus.

Education

I am currently in the Honors Program at UNC-Chapel Hill majoring in Political Science and History and minoring in Arabic. I have a 3.878 GPA, and I hope to attend law school at Harvard or Yale.

Comments

I am deeply passionate about the issues facing the youth in North Carolina, especially as related to criminal justice reform. If appointed to this position, I work as hard as possible to make a difference in my community.

Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a Board or Commission?

I am becoming more settled in my profession and ready to contribute more of my time to helping Raleigh and Wake County grow and develop. I have lived in Raleigh since attending NC State University in 2004. I own my home and practice law in downtown Raleigh, and I would like to become more involved.

Work Experience

2011-2013, Law Clerk to the Honorable Richard A. Elmore, NC Court of Appeals; 2013-current, Family/Domestic Attorney at Gailor Hunt Jenkins Davis & Taylor, PLLC

Volunteer Experience

In 2013 I co-founded Stonewall Sports-Raleigh, a nonprofit LGBT and ally sports league. Since founding, the league has raised and donated almost $100,000 to local charities such as the LGBT Center of Raleigh, Tammy Lynn Center, and InterFaith Food Shuttle. We organize amateur leagues for kickball, dodgeball, volleyball, bowling, flag football, tennis, and a run club. Our leagues play at Halifax Park and Community Center in downtown Raleigh. I also presently serve on the Development Committee for the Tammy Lynn Center.

Education

BA in Political Science from NC State University (2008); JD from NC Central School of Law (2011)

Comments

I believe I would be a great asset to any of the three board to which I've indicated interest. I am ready, willing, and eager to serve. For more information on my league, Stonewall Sports - Raleigh:

I have great concern of what's happening in and around Wake County. I have worked tirelessly with the community around the gangs, single mothers, homeless children and see a great need of those who need a voice who are not able to get to the table. My passion and love for our community runs deep I see a dying community on a daily basis. It would be my honor to serve on the board not to just serve, but to be effective.

Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a Board or Commission?

I am interested in the Wake County Juvenile Crime Prevention Council committee because of my interest in improving the recidivism rates of young people entering into the juvenile justice system. I am also interested in and have done considerable research on disrupting the pipeline for young people entering the juvenile justice system, through prevention and intervention programs. I believe that I can contribute extensively to the committee through both my experience on dealing with juvenile justice issues and my knowledge base of factors that place juveniles at-risk for delinquency.

Work Experience

Currently, I am adjunct professor of psychology for NC Wesleyan College. I am also employed by the North Carolina Department of Public Safety where I help to coordinate and write grants and analyze related to citizen reentry, opioid abuse, and other justice issues.

Volunteer Experience

I have also held several volunteer positions such as mentoring young people and tutoring students in reading and math. Recently, I served as a volunteer at the Emily K. Center.
