

Roger “Chip” Hawley
Deputy Sheriff Major
Sheriff’s Office

Major Chip Hawley was hired in May 1985 as a Deputy with the Wake County Sheriff’s Office, where he was assigned to the Patrol Division. In 1997, he was promoted to the rank of Sergeant within the Patrol Division. In 2001, he was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant within the Patrol Division. In 2007, he was promoted to the rank of Captain within the Patrol Division. In 2011, he was promoted to the rank of Major within the Patrol Division where he served until March of 2017. He then transferred to the Criminal Investigative Division.

During his 32 years of service with the Sheriff’s Office, he received numerous professional accomplishments. Several of these accomplishments include: Certified General Instructor in NC, Instructor of twenty-one Basic Law Enforcement Academies, Officer in charge of all Law Enforcement issues at the NC State Fair for the past 9 years, Officer in charge of overseeing all NCSU events for the Sheriff’s Office and Officer in charge of all visits by Dignitaries. He also had 3072 hours of Certified Law Enforcement training, oversaw the development and implementation of the first Motorcycle Unit at the Wake County Sheriff’s Office, oversaw the Boat Team, and was assigned to the Wake County Emergency Operations Center as Law Enforcement Command. In 2001, he received the Sheriff’s Office Employee of the Year Award.

After retirement, Major Hawley will continue his Law Enforcement career. He has been appointed as the Deputy Chief of the State Capitol Police Department.

Please join me in congratulating Major Hawley on his retirement.