Item Summary:

Wake County Facilities Design Recognized for Design Excellence

In March, the Department of Facilities Design & Construction received the 2018 Isosceles Award from the Triangle Chapter of the American Institute of Architects (AIA). This award honors individuals, associations or companies outside the architectural profession who have demonstrated excellence in design in the Triangle area.

The AIA's awards committee recognized Wake County's significant contributions to the improvement of the built environment through their libraries, civic, public and educational buildings. The award acknowledges the county's innovative approach to design and demonstrated commitment to achieving success through thoughtful planning, solid building and comprehensive maintenance.
