

Mission

To help break the cycle of poverty and create generational self-sufficiency for the individuals and families of Wake County by helping them achieve housing and income security.

Passage Home 17-18 Results

28 families
rose from poverty

719 unique individuals served

80 veterans
served

$7,000
increase in participant's income

234 attained
or maintained
housing

Mission Driven Programs

offered throughout Wake County

Permanent, supportive housing affords families security and the ability to focus on longer-term goals

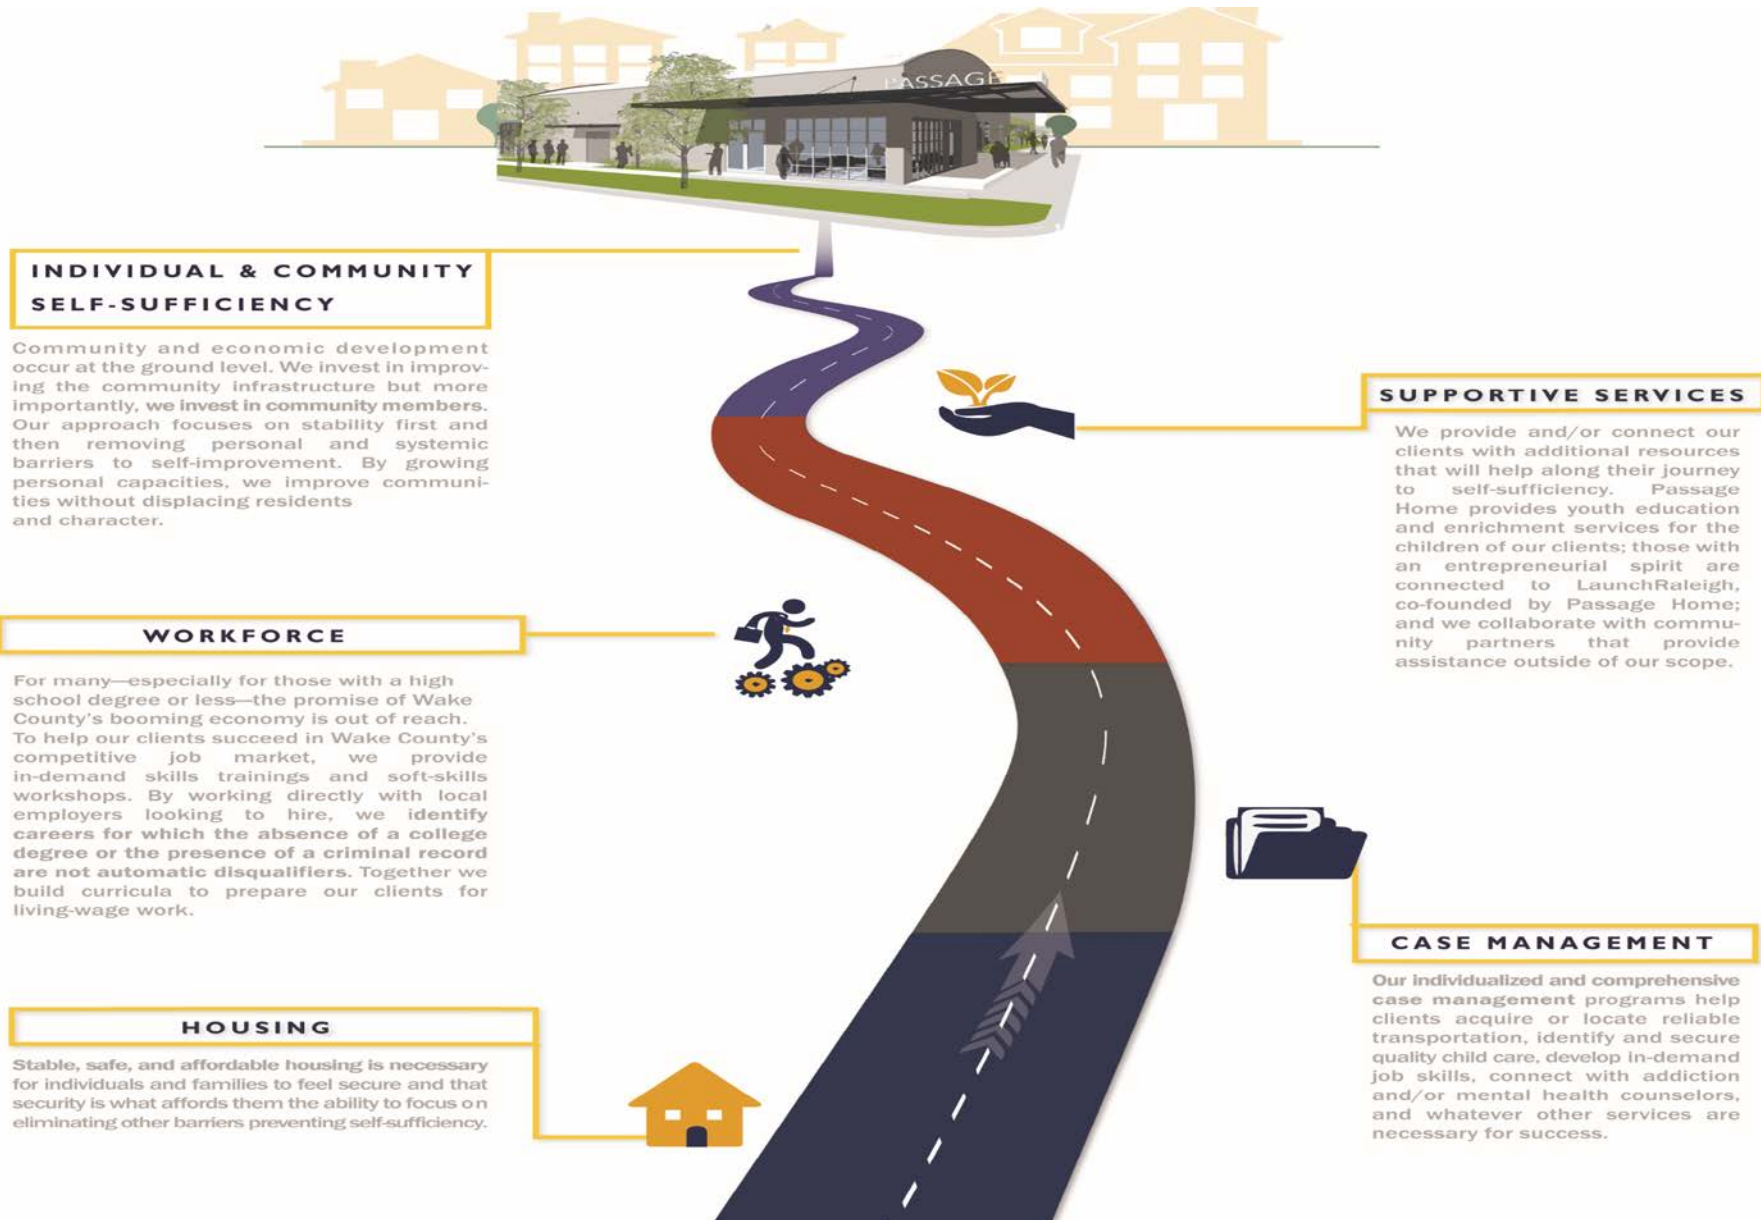

Comprehensive case management focuses on removing barriers to living wage employment

Workforce development provides trainings and classes that help residents gain and retain employment

Pathway to Self-Sufficiency

MICRO

MACRO

Passage Home takes a micro approach to alleviating poverty, focusing on the specific needs of the individual and helping them overcome their barriers to housing security and living-wage employment

Passage Home takes a macro approach to alleviating poverty, looking at what societal and community issues entrench our clients in the cycle of poverty. Our macro approach has led us to a larger community vision

Family Self-Sufficiency Program Outcomes

	2015-16	2016-17	2017-18
of families served.	152	143	150
of families rising above the poverty level.	23	28	15
of families obtaining employment.	34	38	35
of families who are employed and obtain better employment.	19	21	17
of jobs with medical benefits obtained.	7	8	6
of families completing education/training programs.	29	16	27
of families securing standard housing.	41	44	34
of families maintaining housing	50	91	65