Wake County Justice Center, Room 2800

Committee Members: Jessica Holmes, Chair
James West, Vice-Chair

MEETING CALLED TO ORDER: Jessica Holmes, Chair

I. Accomplishments, Opportunities, and Challenges in Wake County's Housing Affordability Program

Lorena McDowell, Director, Wake County Housing

Item Summary:

Over the past year, Wake County has taken important steps to pursue housing affordability goals. These steps include forming a new department to focus exclusively on housing and committing an additional $15 million annually for housing investments. This briefing will begin with background information on the County's challenges. Staff will then discuss recent accomplishments, current programs and services, and new challenges and opportunities.

Congressman David Price will also join us and make a few remarks about the Federal role in housing affordability.
