Compensation Recommendations

Pay bands new term is “Market Ranges” to indicate pay is market based; All market ranges continue to be at or above Living Wage

Establish new market range structures for CCBI, Information Technology and Medical in addition to the Legal, Sheriff and Detention existing special structures.

Significant structure revision to EMS due to market conditions that hinder recruiting efforts.

Department Heads actively involved in reviewing job families, sub families, classifications and respective market ranges.

- New structure helps illustrate that employees may be at different career levels while in the same market range
- New structure helps illustrate that employees may move both horizontally or vertically (supervision is not the only means of increasing opportunities for professional growth)

The Big Picture

Positions with Ranges Going Up	Positions with Ranges Staying the Same	Positions with Ranges Going Down
76%	21%	3%*

*Mostly due to individual position allocations, no salaries will be reduced

Impact to Employees Over Max

Market range changes will reduce the number of employees over the maximum of the range by 80% from 82 to 14 employees

Employees to New Minimum

Market range movement will require approximately 300 employee salaries be adjusted to the new minimum (7% of employees)

Dollar Impact of Moves to Minimum by Dept

				PROJECTED TOTAL:	$608,677

Additional Salary Adjustments

- Further calculations are needed to determine employee pay in relation to the new structure
- In January 2020, Human Resources will make recommendations for employee salary adjustments that are needed to maintain market positioning

Next Steps

Amend Wake County Code Ordinance, Chapter 31, Section 31.05 to address change in classification approach

Amend FY20 Personnel, Classification and Compensation Ordinance

Upon approval, notify all employees of new job classification, market range and any individual salary impact of moves to the minimum

Pay and classification changes to be effective January 1, 2020
